

Thursday June 2nd 1894

My Dear Sir

This is the second letter I am obliged to trouble you in the today.

Will you have the kindness, by return of post, to send (for publication with the address) a proof of the last complete bill, addressed, "Mark Lemon typist, Punch office, Fleet Street, London: ?".

Yours truly

Charles Dickens

Francis Robinson on typing

